MESSAGE FROM A CHURCHWARDEN

By the time you read this, the Feast will be "done and dusted". The ladies who work tirelessly to create exquisite floral arrangements for our church are congratulated and thanked. Our Coffee morning continue to be well supported, raising much needed funds for the church. The next one will be on Tuesday 5th August @ 10.30am, in the church. Pam Baylis

ROW GARDENS ALLOTMENT GROUP [R.G.A.G]

In response to the 2013 Annual Report of the Parish Council's Chairman, published in the June issue of the Newsletter, G Ashworth, Chairman of RGAG has requested that the following be published: "After accepting an invitation to attend a meeting the Parish Council on 8th May, to report on the progress of the Allotments, as the Allotments Chairman, I gave the said report on the situation on the Allotments and added our position on the mentioned agreement between us, that we have agreed not to accept it. And this was not recognised in their article." Graham Ashworth.

OPEN DAY

RGAG will be holding an Open Day on Sunday 17th August, starting at 1.00pm. The allotments will be open for you to take a stroll around and chat to the existing plot holders with an opportunity to see what they are growing. The BBQ will also be lit, selling burger/sausages, as well as teas, coffee and cake. There will be a children's "Find the Veg" competition to keep the little ones amused as well as a Veg and Plant stall for the grown-ups. Come along and join us for an enjoyable few hours.

Dogs: Micro- chipping & Fouling.

Unfortunately, there was insufficient interest/need to make this a viable village event - thanks to those who did respond. If you do need to have your dogs micro-chipped, keep an eye on press advertisements – some vets are offering this service, free of charge. Additional SKDC Dog Warden checks have been requested to monitor the problem of owners failing to clear up their dog's mess.

RIPPING-ALE BEER FESTIVAL

Help required on Bank Holiday Monday 25th August from 10.00am

We are looking for as many volunteers as possible to help put the Beer Festival tents up on the Playing Field. Even if you can only spare an hour or two, all help will be appreciated. If you can't make 10.00am, do come along when you can and see if we still need help.

Do you fancy sponsoring a Barrel of Beer for a friend or relation?

Is it a Birthday or Anniversary of a friend and/or relative? Then how about sponsoring a Barrel of Beer in their name! With a Barrel costing between £90 to £120, this eats into the profits we generate which we pass on to local charities and good causes. So if you are able to contribute between £50 - £60 and provide a photo of your friend or relation, we put them on the front of the Barrel! If you are interested please E-mail Andrew Hyland at arhyla64@aol.com confirming why and who you are sponsoring the Barrel for! Andrew Hyland

RIPPINGALE & DISTRICT GARDENING CLUB

The next meeting on Wednesday 13th August is a "Propagation Evening" with Cliff, Joan and Sharron. This is a practical session to be held at 7.00pm at Chapel Street, Haconby, Bourne PE10 0UL, for which there is a charge of £2.50 to cover expense of potting compost etc. Areas of propagation discussed in an earlier lecture this year will be demonstrated and enlarged upon. If you have a plant you wish to propagate and are unsure of the methodology, bring it along for advice from the experts. This is our last garden visit before we resume lectures in the Autumn.

RIPPINGALE & DISTRICT WI

The July meeting was enjoyable and interesting when Jill Collinge gave us a Virtual Tour of Lincoln starting from the lower part of Steep Hill, passed the Jews House and the Synagogue up to and into the Cathedral. A truly Historical visit. Our youngest member had made a video showing us the passing the WI Baton in Rippingale through to Bourne transported by vintage vehicles with the various entertainment. She followed this with her video of her trip to Denman College where she took part in the Art Class after winning a WI Bursary. A very talented young lady. There will not be a meeting in August as there is an outing to Norfolk, various teas, lunches, bowling, Tolethorpe Open Air Theatre and the Ballet at the Royal Opera House, London. September will be a Burlesque night and visitors will be most welcome. For more information contact Rebecca Main [01778] 440411 or rebeccamain1@yahoo.co.uk
